GROUP ACTIVITIES

Old Town Florence

Nestled along the Siuslaw River, Historic Old Town Florence offers lovely, unique, fun shopping and dining to locals and tourists. It's all blended with colorful and creative art galleries, the quaint path through Gazebo Park to the river, and the Siuslaw River Bridge Interpretive Center.

Oregon Dunes Recreation Area

Take an exciting dune buggy tour with the choice of half hour or hour trips. Want a more leisurely ride, try an hour long giant dune buggy tour. Extend you fun with go-karts, miniature golf, bumper boats or a train ride.

Beach Bonfires and Old Fashion S'mores

Feel like a kid again! A favorite group activity out in front of the resort! We can help you with wood and fire starters! S'more supplies, kites and sand toys are sold in The Market & Dine-in Deli too!

Saddle Up!

Hop in the saddle and ride through the coastal forest, over the dunes and on to the beach with well-trained guides and even better trained horses. Pick up the pace on the wet sand where the horses can trot to your heart's content.

Sea Lion Caves

The World's Largest Cave; located 11 miles north of Florence; Take your group down into the caves and witness nature at it's finest! "Nothing Short of Wild!"

Heceta Head Lighthouse

The iconic lighthouse at Heceta Head keeps a steadfast watch from its perch 206 feet above the Pacific. Its light has guided mariners for more than a century, while its picturesque white tower draws visitors to the surrounding 549-acre park with its trails, tide pools, and sandy beach.

Coastal Golfing

What an opportunity to work on your golf while enjoying the salty ocean air. With 2 courses in the Florence area and ever shifting ocean breezes no two rounds will be the same in this golfer's paradise.
